Introduction

1.1 Introduction:

Education has a great social importance, specially, in the modern, complex industrialized societies. Philosophers of all periods, beginning with ancient stages, devoted to it a great deal of attention. Education acts as integrative force in society by communicating value, that unite different sections of society. The family may fail to provide the child the essential knowledge of the social skills and values of the wider society. Accordingly, various theories regarding its nature and objective have come into being. Some of the significant functions of education are, like, to complete the socialization process, to transmit the central heritage, for the formation of social personality, reformation of attitudes, education for occupational placement, conferring of status, education encourages the spirit of competition, education trains in skills that are required by the economy, fosters participant democracy, education acts as an integrative force. Therefore, it is necessary to acquaint the learners with the ideas and thoughts of the great thinkers in education.

As per the requirement, Education always needs an expression factor to be well improved and to facilitate relation among various thoughts and ideas. The communication forms a better understanding among the learners of different grades though it imparts different perspectives to each. And even History compiles the thinking of great personalities that by expression has created some major revolutions for a better future. Those personalities have taught us to appreciate our roots and culture and their works have inflicted various emotions of compassion, patriotism, service and determination among all. In order to provide a right perspective on the thoughts of these great personalities, discussions and deliberations may be organized. Different activities/competitions, like, poster, dance, drama, skit, one-act play, debate, essay, shramdan, etc., may be organized on the birthdays of these personalities, in order to internalize/realize their thoughts.

1.2 Objectives: The basic objectives of the programme are-

- To acquaint the learners with the philosophy and contributions of the great Indian thinkers.
- To create a forum to discuss the current issues and trends in education in the light of the philosophies of the great Indian thinkers.
- To celebrate important events to discuss the current issues and trends in education.
- To organize various activities on the works and contributions made by them in the field of education.

1.3 Methodology:

- Eminent personalities will be invited to deliver lectures on great Indian thinkers and their contributions in the field of education.
- Socio-cultural activities will be conducted in and outside the campus as part of the 'Expression Series' such as skit performances about the works and dedication of Indian personalities, dance programs, etc.
- Different competitions like poster making, slogan writing, caricatures, exhibitions will be conducted among the students as part of the expression series.
- Imparting factual knowledge among the students through presentations about the life experiences of various Indian philosophers and their contributions towards the society.

2. Life, Philosophy and Contributions of Dr. Sarvapalli Radhakrishnan (Teacher’s day on 5th September, 2022)

A famous saying of Aristotle, “Those who educate children well are more to be honoured than they who produce them; for these only gave them life, those arts of living well”, was incorporated into actions by Dr Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan in 1962. It was an incident in 1962 when some of the friends and students of Dr Radhakrishnan wanted to celebrate his birthday, to which he replied, “Instead of celebrating my birthday, it would be my proud privilege if September 5th is observed as Teacher’s Day”. Since then, the country started celebrating his birth anniversary as Teachers' Day every year.

Regional Institute of Education, Bhopal celebrated Teachers' day 2022 in the remembrance of Dr Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan to regard and honour the hard work, perseverance and immense contribution of all teachers at Pandit Sunderlal

Sharma Central Institute of Vocational Education (PSSCIVE) Auditorium. The function started with lighting the lamp and Saraswati Vandana. This was followed by the welcoming of The Head of the institute, Professor Jaydip Mandal, and the heads of the respective departments, Dr L.K. Tiwari, Dr Nidhi Tiwari, Dr Ratanmala Arya, Dr P Kulshreshtha, Dr N.C. Ojha, and Dr Ashwini Garg. The beginning of the program was embarked by the Principal's speech, where he warmly welcomed all the teachers and expressed his gratitude to all those whose efforts had taken RIE Bhopal to greater heights. Then Dr Saurabh mesmerised the audience with his warm words. Following this, the Principal welcomed the senior teachers by presenting them with shawl and shrifal. The introduction of these teachers and warm words by a few of them revealed that RIE Bhopal is an amalgamation of educators who are brilliant in their field of expertise and the carrier of extraordinary talents. In the continuity, a brief introduction of Dr Radhakrishnan and a documentary on his life and achievements were presented. The felicitation and speech of Prof Mandal, Prof L.K. Tiwari, Prof P. Kulshreshtha, Prof Nidhi Tiwari, Dr Ratnamala Arya, Dr N.C. Ojha, Dr Ramesh Babu and Dr Rashmi Singhai laid next, followed by the felicitation of all the newly joined faculties. Then the students performed a group song and dance to owe their gratitude to their teachers. The program was concluded by a vote of thanks and malyarpan of Dr Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan statue.

V Semester, student welcomed Dr. AshwiniGarg, with the sapling.

This was followed by RIE Gaan which was played by the studio team of R.I.E., Bhopal. Prof. (Dr). Jaydip Mandal welcomed the Chief Guest and other faculty members on the occasion of Youth Day. Later on respected Principal was invited on stage to address about the great soul- Swami Vivekananda and he also congratulated everyone to be privileged enough to get the honor of being born on this motherland where personalities like Swami Vivekananda was born. He mentioned him as the embodiment of nation building, a great philosopher, Hindu monk, and spiritual leader who believed in the simple living and high thinking.

After Principal Sir's enlightening words, Prateek of B.A B.Ed. 5th semester was called on stage to present his views and thoughts on the importance of Swami Vivekananda's teachings in 21st century youth's life. He enlightened the audience with the present day mental health, youth issues, Vivekanand's philosophy and a need to deal with emerging conflicts. He also highlighted unique ideals of Swami Vivekananda's personality which allowed him to get immense concentration power. He also shared a short story of Swamiji's life where he read continuously for 3 days without taking any break not even for food. He later compared the focusing power possessed by today's youth. He through his speech urged the students to imbibe some of these qualities of Swamiji's personality which can help them become not only independent but also enthusiastic young generation of the country.

Gauri Bisen presented a Hindi poem which was dedicated to present day youth. Her poem called for the youth to serve the nation. NSS volunteers presented NSS LakhyaGeet.

After that NSS volunteers presented a small play of title "Social Media and Youth." Veerbha Singharia (B.Sc.B.Ed.III semester) physical presented an Urdu poem in relation to youth.

The stage was filled with an inspiring skit performance by the students on "Vartaman Bharat ka Yuva." The students by means of their performance showed how today youth is so addicted to the phone and social media and how ignorant this generation is towards their goals. The students in their play also highlighted the values and teachings given by Swami Vivekananda and how the youth can read and follow discipline to achieve success in life. The auditorium got filled with new zeal and energy.

Later in the program there was another very interesting session of poem presentation given by NSS student on "Khud se Hareef (competition)." She shared her views about how one can compete and always become a better version of oneself.

After the beautiful poem, Prof. Chitra Singh Head, Department of Extension Education was invited to introduce our Chief Guest Ms. RachnaJani from Swami Vivekananda Centre, Gujrat. She shared with us how perfectly Ms.RachnaMaam follows the principle of simple living and high thinking. She mentioned how she works on the teachings of Swami Vivekananda. She also shared the 5 basic principles laid by Swamiji and how she herself follows them wholeheartedly.

Later on Ms. Rachna Jani Maam was invited to present her address. The guest speaker mentioned the occasion of Chicago Speech and the whole incident beautifully to the audience. She intrigued the audience by asking them about what this great Indian man said in the Chicago Religious Parliament that paid him immense respect and made every elite present in the Parliament went fond of him and his speech. She also highlighted some very interesting points of his address that made him world famous. His address to everyone as ‘My dear brothers and sisters’ and not as ‘Ladies and Gentleman’ spellbound everyone else present in the Parliament. She told about how Swamiji dedicated his whole life serving the nation. Her fierce voice calling for “Bharat Mata ki Jai” filled the whole auditorium with utmost energy. She presented many incidents from Vivekanand's life to encourage youth to work for the nation. She expressed the need to assimilate the values of Vivekanand into life. She insisted on reading Vivekanand to understand one's own identity as an Indian. She expressed that there is no distinction between Bharat and Vivekanand. She expressed that love is not selfish so love the nation selflessly. The person is a "traitor" according to Vivekanand who grows in India but does not contribute to the development and growth of the nation. The guest speaker urged the youth to pledge to nurture any one talent in them and dedicate it to National Development. Nationalization and Innovation of education is necessary in the present times.

The speech was followed by valedictory session. Prize distribution for Poster and Slogan writing competition which was held on 11 Jan 2023. The students who secured merit positions in the slogan writing and poster making competitions held earlier in the day were awarded with certificate and prize from the hands of the Chief Guest and Principal Sir.

Ms. Rachna Jani, Principal, Vivekanand centre, Bhopal was facilitated by Shawal, Shriphal and Momento by Prof. (Dr). Jaydip Mandal, Principal, R.I.E., Bhopal.

In the end, Dr. Ashwani Garg, Chief Advisor, student Council expressed his gratitude and thanks to all the people who worked to make the program a success. This was followed by National Anthem.

10. Life, Philosophy and contribution of Netaji Subash Chandra Bose (23/01/2023)

Regional Institute of Education celebrated Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose Jayanti on 23rd January, 2023 in Ninaad, P.S.S.C.I.V.E auditorium. The program started at 11 am.

The program began with lightening of the lamp of Goddess Saraswati by Prof. I.B. Chughtai Sir Principal, R.I.E., Bhopal, Prof. B. Ramesh Babu, Head Department of Education, Prof. Nidhi Tiwari, Head, Department of Education in Social Science and Humanities, Prof. Chitra Singh, Head, Department of Extension Education, Prof. Rashmi Singhai, Head, Department of Education in Science and Mathematics, Chief Advisor of Students Council Dr. Ashwini Garg. The saraswati Vandana was sung by the R.I.E. girl students. "R.I.E. Gaan" was played by Studio Team, R.I.E.

Prof. I.B Chugtai Sir, Principal, R.I.E., Bhopal was welcomed with a sapling by Dr. Ashwini Garg Sir. Nikhil Shinde, B.Sc.B.Ed. III Semester, R.I.E. presented a sapling to Prof. B.Ramesh Babu, Head Department of Education, Bhopal. Niharika presented sapling to Prof. Nidhi Tiwari Maam, Head Department of Education in Social Science and Humanities. Mukesh presented sapling to Prof. Chitra Singh, Head Department of Extension Education. Geetika Sonakiya, B.Sc. B.Ed, V Semester presented sapling to Prof. Rashmi Singhai Maam, Head Department of Education in Science and Mathematics., Kartikaye B.Sc.B.Ed. III

Semester presented a sapling to Dr. Ashwini Garg Sir, Chief Advisor, Student Council.

Program began by a Deshbhakti Geet performance given by B.Sc. B.Ed. students. They sang some very popular songs like “Vande Matram”, “Ae Vatan”, “Sandeshe Aate Hai”.

Later on there was a poem recitation by Nikhil Shende, B.Sc.B.Ed.III semester, titled “vah khoun kaho” depicting the braveness of Subhash Chandra Bose and his fight for independence. He in his poem also mentioned about the greatest call he made in Burma with his fierce slogan “ Tum mujhe khoun do me tumhe azadi dunga”.

A Powerpoint Presentation by B.Sc. B.Ed students in which they depicted the life and struggles of Subhash Chandra Bose and how a common man born in a family with 14 siblings rose in power to become the President of Indian National Congress and how his life ended in an accidental plane crash. They also mentioned about the famous “Delhi Chalo” movement that was led by Bose in Japan.

Then was a fantastic skit performance by Pratiksha Gurule and Niharika B.Sc.B.Ed students on the life of Subhash Chandra Bose. It focused on every aspect of his life beginning from his early life as a student who had the guts to challenge the British teachers who didn't respect Gayatri Mantra to a fierce brave youth who in spite of being appointed as the President of Indian National Congress resigned from the position due to intellectual differences between him and Mahatma Gandhi who wanted to gain independence by taking the path of non violence only. They also showed Bose and his Army fighting against the Britishers and getting martyred for their motherland. The acting of the students and execution of the play was so intense and perfect that it ended up with a standing ovation from the audience.

There was another poem recitation by Anu Yadav, B.Sc.B.Ed III semester, which was well read especially the slogans raised by Bose were presented by her in a manner that made students getting filled with zeal and enthusiasm.

Prof.(Dr.)B.Ramesh Babu Sir, Head Department of Education shared his thoughts about Netaji. He also emphasized to situate Netaji's life and personality in the historic context so as to get more precise idea of how this common man who started his journey from Indian Civil Service (ICS) went on to become the President of Indian National Congress (INC) and ended up forming the great Indian National Army (INA) in Germany. His aim was to get independence for the nation and he believed in "Freedom is not given, it is taken" and on this his views completely contradicted those of Mahatma Gandhi who believed on the path of peace and non violence. He also explained how there was no animosity between Netaji and Gandhiji but only there was difference in the paths they took for attaining the same purpose- independence from Britishers. He also shared how his life tragically ended in a plane crash otherwise history would have been a little different.

Chief Guest of the occasion Principal Prof. IB Chughtai Sir addressed the audience about the importance of this day and the how the youth should take some inspiration from the life and personality of Netaji.

Later on the winners of poster presentation and slogan writing competitions were felicitated by the hands of Principal Sir. In the end, Dr. Ashwini Garg Sir Chief Advisor, Student Council proposed vote of thanks in which he appreciated the enthusiasm of the students. The program culminated with National Anthem.
