ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Firstly, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my supervisor Prof. Ratnamala Arya for her continuous support during my study and related research, for her patience, motivation, and immense knowledge. Her guidance helped me in all the time of my research and writing of this dissertation. I could not have imagined having a better advisor and mentor for my Int. BE.d M.Ed study.

Besides my supervisor, I would like to thank former Principal Prof. Nityanand Pradhan and Principal in-charge Dr. V.K Kakaria , all the faculty and staff of the Department of Education, Regional insitute of Education for their support and encouragement. My sincere thanks also goes to my fellow scholars and my friends whose help and insight have made the completion of this dissertation possible.

I would also like to thank the workers, the helper and the parents of the children in the 10 Anganwadi centres that were visited for their cooperation during the process of data collection

Last but not the least, I would like to thank my family: my parents and to my brother for supporting me spiritually throughout writing this dissertation and my life in general.
